Message from the Warden

Wisconsin Correctional Center System Annual Report

October 1, 2005

This has been an exciting year for the Wisconsin Correctional Center System (WCCS). The dedicated WCCS staff has once again demonstrated their ability to provide inmates with programming and services to provide for a safe and successful reintegration into the community.

During the past year, WCCS hit record numbers of inmates on work release with corresponding increases in inmate earnings and collections of restitution, child support and room and board. WCCS averaged 906 work release placements/month and a total of work release wages earned of $13,769,196. The inmates paid $2,870,918 for room and board, $744,414.09 in child support and $838,700.01 court ordered obligations.

The Earned Release Program (ERP), a budget initiative of Governor Jim Doyle, was expanded in September 2004 to include female inmates at the Robert E. Ellsworth Correctional Center, providing program parity for all inmates within WCCS. ERP has provided courts with a structured six-month drug and alcohol program for inmates and provided a mechanism for motivated inmates to earn a release to community supervision. There were 174 inmates that graduated from ERP during the year, saving 42,233 prison bed days.

The Challenge Incarceration Programs (CIP) at Black River Correctional Center (BRCC) and St Croix Correctional Center (SCCC) had 348 men and 19 women graduate from the boot camp, saving 219,760 prison beds days. The recidivism rates continue to be significantly reduced for inmates completing the program.

A significant change for WCCS this year was the transfer of the female centers under Taycheedah Correctional Institution (TCI). The Division of Adult Institutions transformation team recommended that all female inmates be organized under the authority of the TCI Warden. WCCS and TCI worked together to transfer the Milwaukee Women's Correctional Center, John C. Burke Correctional Center, and Robert E. Ellsworth Correctional Center to TCI effective July 1, 2005.

WCCS embraces the challenges of today and plans for the future regarding the expansion of reintegration services within the Department of Corrections. WCCS continues to engage inmates, staff and our community partners as we prepare inmates for release. I am proud of the daily contributions of all WCCS staff to our mission of successful reintegration of inmates into the community.

Programs Offered at the Center:

Military Bearing:

This includes intensive instruction in military bearing, courtesy, drills and physical exercise. The inmates are oriented to this activity by Drill Instructors; however all staff reinforce concepts that support military bearing.

Group:

Both individual and group counseling approaches are an integral part of the program. Inmates participate in-group activities a minimum of 9.5 hours each week. Group/individual counseling focuses on criminal thinking and rational behavior therapy. At the end of each day, all inmates are required to complete a structured entry in their journals. The social workers are the primary case planners; however, treatment activities are facilitated by both treatment and security staff. Inmates who have completed the majority of their treatment needs and are in their final phase of the Challenge Incarceration Program are utilized in the peer treatment groups established for inmates in the early phases of the Challenge Incarceration Program.

Education:

A structured education program is part of every inmate's program. Emphasis is on ABE and HSED skill development. Those inmates who are already at or above these levels have individualized educational programs. Educational activities involve a minimum of 9.5 hours of classroom each week. Currently offering a building service certificate in Vocational Training as potentially inmates could earn 3 credits through WWTC for class. Each squad is held back two and a half days each week for educational and group counseling. There is also time set aside on the weekend for study time. Finally, due to the nature of the Challenge Incarceration Program education program, inmates with severe learning disabilities are not admitted to Challenge Incarceration Program.

AODA:

A condition of placement in the Challenge Incarceration Program is a chemical abuse assessment and subsequent treatment and education. Treatment is abstinence oriented. It is provided by certified AODA staff through contract and is facilitated by all staff. A minimum of 9.5 hours each week per inmate is dedicated to AODA treatment. Additional one-to-one and assignment work is completed outside of the group setting.

Work:

Every inmate involved in Challenge Incarceration Program must also be involved in meaningful work on a daily basis. This work, coordinated by a Supervisor and supervised by a correctional officer, involves a minimum of 10 hours a week for each inmate. It does not include the inmate's requirement to keep his specific personal area neat and clean. It is important for inmates to accept the role as a working member of a community. Such work also enhances their sense of self-worth, group identity, and provides them an opportunity to "pay back" the community in some limited fashion, for the expenses the community has incurred for their past criminal behavior. Work tasks include manual unskilled labor for non-profit organizations.

Earned Release Program (ERP) (Began March 2004)

The 2003-2005 state budget, Wisconsin Act 33, included the creation of an Earned Release program within the Wisconsin Department of Corrections, Drug Abuse Correctional Center (DACC). This provision of the budget bill became effective July 26, 2003, and applies to certain inmates within the adult correctional system and those sentenced on or after the effective date of the bill. Offenders sentenced for crimes specified in Chapter 940 and specific subsections of Chapter 948 are not statutorily eligible for the program. (948.02, 948.025, 948.03, 948.05, 948.055, 948.06, 948.07, 948.075, 948.08 or 948.095)

The Earned Release Program is a six (6) month closed group program of ten (10) offenders per group housed on forty (40) bed units. The Earned Release Program serves substance abusing offenders. The Program's mission is to enhance safety in the community by providing a continuum of substance abuse treatment services. Services begin in a confined facility on a residential treatment unit and will continue with after, intensive supervision, and monitoring of alcohol/drug use throughout the offender's supervision in the community.

Earned Release Program (OWI)

OWI is a 96 bed, six- (6) month program for offenders convicted of operating a vehicle while impaired 5th offense or more, under Wisconsin Statutes 346.63 (1)(a). Program components include AODA education; dependency and addiction; modification of high risk and thrill-seeking behavior; rational behavior training; responsible decision-making; relapse prevention; and restorative justice.

Community/Project Crews:

Inmates awaiting program are provided work experience on these community project crews for up to 6 months. Crews operate all year but are most active from late April through early November.

AODA 5A

Facilitated by ATTIC Correctional Enterprises this substance abuse program is designed for the inmate or ATR offender with an identified substance abuse history. This program is specifically designed for the lower literacy inmate. Participants require an identified 6.0 or lower reading level to participate. Modules deal with substance abuse issues, CGIP and other elements designed to change criminality. This is a 16 week program. It is a residential program in which all participants begin at the same time.

Wood Shop

This is an open ended assignment in which men assigned to the wood shop will learn basic woodworking skills under the supervision of the shop supervisor. Participants build a variety of wood products such as cabinets, wardrobe closets, desks, cedar chests, cutting boards and other products. Many of the products built are then utilized by other WCCS sites. Also, products are provided to community organizations as donations to support their cause as part of our commitment to both Community Service and Restorative Justice. FCC is fostering a relationship with BCE to also provide products for their marketing.

Cognitive Intervention Program 1&2 (CGIP)

This is a program in which participants are given an opportunity to reflect on their thinking processes, to focus on choices made in their lives which have led them to criminal activity. The intent of the program is to help participants develop new thinking patterns and provide them with greater choices in their lives.

GED/HSED

FCC has 1.5 FTE educational staff who work with inmates and ATR offenders and assist them in pursuing their High School Equivalency Diploma. The education staff work with both general population men as well as men assigned to the AODA program. They work very closely with the AODA participants to assist them in raising their literacy level.

Driver Education

FCC education staff assist men in obtaining their driver's license. They work with both men who have never had a license in obtaining a temporary license and on the road training as well as helping men who have had a license renew their license. They also assist in getting drivers van certified.

Pre-Release and Reintegration

Employment Resources Specialist and other staff work with inmates individually and in group to assist with pre-release planning and life skills. Among other things they assist with career counseling, job searches, resume development, obtaining social security cards and other identification needed to secure employment. Inmates leave the Center with a hard copy and computer disk resume and cover letter. Staff also interact with other governmental agencies, such as Social Security and Veterans Affairs, to assist inmates eligible for benefits to apply for these so that they are available upon release.

Programs Offered at the Center:

Military Bearing:

This includes intensive instruction in military bearing, courtesy, drills and physical exercise. The inmates are oriented to this activity by Drill Instructors; however all staff reinforce concepts that support military bearing.

Group Treatment:

Both individual and group counseling approaches are an integral part of the program. Inmates participate in group activities a minimum of 9.5 hours each week. Group/individual counseling focuses on criminal thinking and rational behavior therapy. At the end of each day, all inmates are required to complete a structured entry in their journals. The social workers are the primary case planners; however, treatment activities are facilitated by both treatment and security staff. Inmates who have completed the majority of their treatment needs and are in their final phase of the Challenge Incarceration Program are utilized in the peer treatment groups established for inmates in the early phases of the Challenge Incarceration Program.

Educational Programming:

A structured education program is part of every inmate's program. Emphasis is on ABE and HSED skill development. Those inmates who are already at or above these levels have individualized educational programs. The education planning is done by the education staff, with supportive services provided by treatment and security staff. Educational activities involve a minimum of 9.5 hours of classroom each week. Each squad is held back two and a half days each week for educational and group counseling. There is also time set aside on the weekend for study time. Finally, due to the nature of the Challenge Incarceration Program education program, inmates with severe learning disabilities are not admitted to Challenge Incarceration Program.

Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse Treatment:

A condition of placement in the Challenge Incarceration Program is a chemical abuse assessment and subsequent treatment and education. Treatment is abstinence oriented. It is provided by certified AODA staff through contract and is facilitated by all staff. A minimum of 9.5 hours each week per inmate is dedicated to AODA treatment. Additional one-to-one and assignment work is completed outside of the group setting.

Work:

Every inmate involved in Challenge Incarceration Program must also be involved in meaningful work on a daily basis. This work, coordinated by a Supervisor and supervised by a correctional officer, involves a minimum of 10 hours a week for each inmate. It does not include the inmate's requirement to keep his specific personal area neat and clean. It is important for inmates to accept the role as a working member of a community. Such work also enhances their sense of self-worth, group identity, and provides them an opportunity to "pay back" the community in some limited fashion, for the expenses the community has incurred for their past criminal behavior. Work tasks include manual unskilled labor for non-profit organizations.
